

I am concerned about an LPFM taking over my local K-LOVE station. I listen to K-LOVE in my local community all the time. They provide quality family friendly programming and information that relates to my community. I believe that it would indeed be a deficit to my community to lose this station.